

Eddy Stone Light

Me father was the keeper of the eddystone light and he slept with a Mermaid one fine night.
Now from this union there came three:
A porpoise and a porgy and the other was me

Chorus:
Yoo Hoo Hoo, the wind blows free
Aye for the life of the rovin' sea.

Now late one night while I was trimmin of the glim
A singing a verse from a heathen hymn
A voice from the starboard echoed "Ahoi"
And there was me mother sittin' on a bouy.

Chorus

Now what's become of me criildren three me mother she did ask of me
Well one was exhibited as a talking fish and the other was served as a Sea Cloud dish

Chorus

Oh phosphorus flashed in her seaweed-hair
I looked again and me mother wasn't there
But a voice came echoing out through the night
"To hell with the keeper of the eddystone light!"

Chorus (2x)
